As a result of his passion for helping people, Kit created and authored The Power of Peace Project, a program which is bringing reconciliation and peace to inmates, rival gang members and opposing factions inside some of the toughest maximum security prisons, and is now spreading to prisons and inner city schools across the nation. Kit also recently launched The Power of Peace Productions, Inc. and partnered with The Catalyst TV Network. Kit serves as an instructor with the Georgia Department of Corrections; a teacher for The Atlanta Mission; an advisor to Project KARMA, an organization devoted to youth gang intervention; as well as serving on the advisory board with HOPE worldwide Atlanta, an organization devoted to helping those in need... Kit spreads much needed, life-changing good news to the corporate world, the prisons, the schools and the streets. In this book, Kit takes you on another forty-day journey, and this time we will seek spiritual breakthrough together with seven new steps that lead us to look for God's answers on a daily basis. Many people pray. Many people even pray daily. And some pray daily and really cry out to God. Why then, are so many "church folks" so stressed, worried and fearful? Why are so many Christians filled with doubt and dread, when they are consistently praying to God? Kit believes that the answer lies in focus and attention--or lack thereof. He believes people are sincere and that they really want help. But he also believes that they have fallen into the trap of seeing things the same old way, after years of thinking the same old way, and they are now unable to see God's answers right in front of them. This new project is about opening our eyes and adjusting our lens, so that we can see our glorious God doing his powerful work every day.

Physical health influences spiritual and emotional health as well as the ability to minister effectively. As Ellen White said so succinctly: "The misuse of our physical powers shortens the period of time in which our lives can be used for the glory of God. And it unfits us to accomplish the work God has given us to do" (Christ's Object Lessons, p. 346). In this volume Dennis Smith invites you to spend 40 days continuing the work God has given you while exploring a wholistic view of health, the importance of caring for mind, body, and soul, and the integral role of the health message during these last days of earth's history.

A simple yet profound guide to facilitate the instinctively human desire to pray. We pray because we are human, not because we are religious. Something in our nature points beyond itself; something in us searches for and desires personal connection with God. Although communicating with our Creator through prayer is innate, the effective practice of it often feels just beyond our reach. This unique book guides you to pray in deeper and more authentic ways. The short prayers and thought-provoking imagery, interspersed with contemplative reflections and suggested practices, will stir, inform, and encourage you. The simplicity of the prayers and the aesthetic appeal of the images will inspire people in every facet of life, including those with no real religious background at all.
