Hosea, Amos, Micah, and Zephaniah, defining the compositional relationship between these texts remains a matter of debate.

Following the scholarly trajectory of exploring
relationship between the Twelve prophets, several scholars argue that these four prophetic convictions have led to the diverse composition models in the field today. Through careful consideration of emerging insights in the study of deuteronomism and scribalism, Werse provides an innovative composition model explaining how these four texts came to function as a collection in the wake of the

The social identity approach is used as a lens through which to understand and derive ethics. This approach highlights the social emphases of a biblical text, and consequently assists in understanding a text's original ethical message. The book of Ruth is used as a test case, employing a social identity approach for
