J.C. Philpot. The sermons of J.C. Philpot have been appreciated by the Lord ' s people throughout the English-speaking world and beyond for well over 150 years. This volume collects together for the first time another aspect of Philpot ' s ministry – that of his Expositions of Scripture. Distinct from his sermon, it was Mr. Philpot ' s practice, that, having read a passage of Scripture, he would briefly expound it before the prayer and sermon which followed.

Alexander Maclaren was born in 1826 at Glasgow, Scotland, the son of David Maclaren, who was a merchant and Baptist lay preacher. Maclaren was converted and publicly baptized at the age of twelve. He was educated at Glasgow High School and Glasgow University. In 1842, at the age of sixteen, Maclaren entered Stepney College, a Baptist institution in London. He took his BA degree at the University of London before he was twenty. The following year he began his ministry at Portland Chapel, Southampton. He worked there for twelve years and developed a reputation as a powerful preacher. He then accepted an invitation to become pastor

In Expositions of Holy Scripture, Christian minister Alexander Maclaren provides a detailed examination and commentary of four of the most important holy scriptures: the epistle of Ephesians, the first and second books of Saint Peter, and the book of Saint John. Superbly researched and full of detail, this book demonstrates the depth of knowledge which Alexander Maclaren approached the holy scriptures. An avid student of Greek and Hebrew, Maclaren held a notably thorough approach to the scripture, which he sought to explain and interpret for the Christian audience. Each successive chapter and verse of the holy writings are analysed by Maclaren, who sets aside his own chapters devoted to explaining the principle tenets of the text. Every key event or holy doctrine in the writings receives an account, such as for instance the famous Resurrection of the Souls and the various explanations of Christ as teacher and holy
