officers, Lt.-Gen. A.A.K. Niazi, laid down arms before the invading Indian army, leading to the dismemberment of Pakistan. Was `Tiger' Niazi a coward, a hero, or the victim of an unjust fate? In this candid account General Niazi breaks 26 years of silence and volunteers his own version of the events of that fateful year.

When a young orphan named Silvertip receives a prophetic vision about the end of their world, no one believes him, and he must join forces with his only two allies, a jaded war chief and a little girl, to persuade the People of the Nightland and the People of the Sunpath to flee eastward to escape the deadly ice, in an Ice Age saga set in the region of the Great Lakes. Reprint.

From national bestselling author Dakota Cassidy comes the latest in a series that "gets better and better with each book" (Bitten By Books). Firefighter McAllister "Mick" Malone knows he has a protective streak, especially when it comes to his deceased best friend's sister, Tessa. But after twenty-five years of verbal sparring, Mick can't help but notice that their recent arguments have started to feel a lot like foreplay. And while Tessa knows exactly what to say to get him going, Mick is thrown for a loop when he actually starts breathing fire. Antique-store owner Tessa Preston has loved Mick Malone since she was ten years old—not that she'd ever admit it. Fighting with Mick is the only thing keeping her from an embarrassing romantic confession, but when the sexy firefighter accidentally ingests some ancient dragon scales masquerading as powdered aspirin, Tessa finds herself handling something much hotter than long-simmering sexual tension...

In almost every area of production, German theatre of the past forty years has achieved a level of distinction unique in the international community. This flourishing theatrical culture has encouraged a large number of outstanding actors, directors, and designers as well as video and film artists. The dominant figure throughout these years, however, has remained the director. In this stimulating and informative book, noted theatre historian Marvin Carlson presents an in-depth study of the artistic careers, working methods, and most important productions of ten of the leading directors of this great period of German staging. Beginning with the leaders of the new generation that emerged in the turbulent late 1960s—Peter Stein, Peter Zadek, and Claus Peymann, all still major figures today—Carlson continues with the generation that appeared in the 1980s, particularly after reunification—Frank Castorf, Anna Viebrock, Andrea Breth, and Christoph Marthaler—and concludes with the leading directors to emerge after the turn of the century, Stefan Pucher, Thomas Ostermeier, and Michael Thalheimer. He also provides information not readily available elsewhere in English on many of the leading actors and dramatists as well as the designers whose work, much of it for productions of these directors, has made this last half century a golden age of German scenic design. During the late twentieth century, no country produced so many major theatre directors or placed them so high in national cultural esteem as Germany. Drawing on his years of regular visits to the Theatertreffen in Berlin and other German productions, Carlson will captivate students of theatre and modern German history and culture with his provocative, well-illustrated study of the most productive and innovative theatre tradition in Europe.

You will encounter some kind of health adversity in life. Doctors can only take you so far. You will have to do the rest yourself. This book is a near comprehensive resource guide to point you in a lot of different directions that might help you in some way. If all of a sudden you get into an accident or get a serious disease, you don't have time to sift through the hundreds of health books at #610 to #619 at the library or cruise the web looking for answers some of which are a massive rip-off. I'll give you a case in point. I was on a holistic cancer website where they give about 25 pages of solid knowledge for free then I went on another one with a ten page sales pitch ending with "Only $97 and you'll get all these reports about 12 obscure holistic cancer therapies."

Written in a concise question-and-answer format, this practical reference offers you expert solutions to the day-to-day problems encountered in boiler operations, water treatment, and steam generation. Included are more than 3,000 questions along with their answers, 140 solved numerical problems, and 410 helpful illustrations. An ideal study aid for the Boiler Operators Examination, this detailed sourcebook also contains case studies of problems involved in water treatment and combustion, and wherever necessary, provides explanations of basic concepts in boiler operations. An essential working tool for all boiler operators, inspectors, maintenance engineers, and technicians, this hands-on guide will give you the technical information and expertise required to solve any boiler problem with complete confidence!

A SEAL's Salvation — Tawny Weber Being run out of his hometown years ago for misbehaving with Genna Reilly — the sheriff's daughter — was one thing. Now navy SEAL 'Bad Ass' Brody Lane is about to step into real danger — the kind of trouble that can send a soldier home injured and broken inside... Genna's entire life has been orchestrated by her family, and she's had enough! Brody's return promises lust-filled pleasures. She didn't expect to find the soldier with distant eyes who has secluded himself from the world. But this good girl knows exactly how to bring a bad boy back to life... Game On — Nancy Warren First up, no-commitment detective Adam Shawnigan. As you can see, ladies, he has the protective cop hero thing happening — and those piercing eyes, his sensuous mouth and lean body. Here comes temptation! Performance coach Serena Long is helping Adam prepare for his hockey league playoffs. As it turns out, he can also help out with her little stalker problem. It's quid pro quo, both in the bedroom and out. And now the bets — and the bedroom games — are on!
