God is totally faithful. That's right at the core of his character - unlike us, he cannot ever break his word. Knowing that we are firmly held in the grip of God's unending faithfulness is deeply reassuring. And it encourages us to be faithful too. Remembering his grace and goodness, we grow in holiness and Christlikeness. Our aim is to be faithful in the big things, but also in the nitty-gritty of life when nobody is watching. With these Bible teachers alongside us: * Alistair Begg (Psalm 119:97-104) * Michael Baughen (2 Timothy 4:1-22 & Hebrews 3:1 - 5:6) * Tim Chester (Genesis15:1-21 & Revelation 2:18-29) * Malcolm Duncan (1 Thessalonians 2:1-12) * Sinclair Ferguson (2 Timothy 4:9-10) * Jonathan Lamb (Acts 20:17-38) * Peter Maiden (1 Samuel 13:5-14) * Alec Motyer (1 Thessalonians 5:1-28) * Tom Putt (Hebrews 6:11-20) we explore God's faithfulness and our response. This undated 30-day devotional shows how God is faithful to cleanse us from sin, keep us until death and guarantee our eternal destiny. What greater reassurance can we ask for?

Give students beginning definitions or working explanations that serve as the basis for helping them become involved in genuine theological dialogue, discussion, and discovery. The perfect supplement or companion for many different introductory theology and religious studies courses.

Encouragement. Perseverance. Stickability. How we need these in our daily lives if we are to grow as Christians and not become jaded and discouraged. So much for the theory, but how can this work out in practice? And when we feel like just giving up? With insightful teaching and application from Michael Baughen, David and Ian Coffey, Jonathan Lamb, Nigel Lee, Ivor Poobalan, Andy Prime, Matt Sleeman, Rico Tice and others, this short volume digs into the Bible, offering timeless wisdom from the Psalms, Ephesians, 1 Thessalonians, 2 Timothy, Hebrews, James, 1 Peter and Revelation. It draws from the inspirational life of pioneer missionary Amy Carmichael. It equips us for those times when we just need to keep on keeping on. Tailored for real people in the real world today.

Life is like a story, and for many of us this is a story about meaning: Why am I here? Where am I going? Who am I? Do I like myself? Why is life, or reality, here at all? These are important questions with a deep truth behind them. But where do we turn for answers? In Food for the Journey, author Joseph B. Lynch shares his own story of [finding the way] that leads to the life Jesus promises to those who try to live the gospel in the twenty-first century. While churches seek to provide both nourishment for the journey and resources to enable the virtues in us, Food for the Journey is meant to involve you in reflecting on your own Christian journey. We are meant to [find the way, and to have life and have it abundantly,] and Food for the Journey's synthesis of personal experience, contemporary culture, and reflections on scripture and the classic Christian values will help you to set yourself on the righteous path and discover the guidance of the Holy Spirit in your own life. Then you too will be on the way to Christ.

In this major revision and expansion of the classic 20th Century Theology (1992), coauthored with Stanley J. Grenz, Roger Olson tells the full story of modern theology from Descartes to Caputo, from the Kantian revolution to postmodernism, now recast in terms of how theologians have accommodated or rejected modernity.

Trevor O'Reggio is professor of Church History and currently chair of that department at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University. He has been teaching at Andrews University since 1998. He earned a PhD in History from the University of Chicago in 1997 and in 2006 a DMin in Marriage and Family from Gordon-Conwell Seminary in Boston. He has authored several books and articles. He teaches primarily Reformation history, American religious history and courses in marriage and family. He enjoys cycling, walking and swimming.

In ages long past, when people took Communion, there was a strong sense of the sacred, an echo of Jacob's words, [Surely the Lord is in this place.] Food for the Journey focuses on the rich meanings woven into the ancient tapestry of the Lord's Supper. Meanings Christians in the first century knew so well but about which we today know so little. This meal is our touchstone, our reminder of God's gracious love and forgiveness. More than wine and bread, it's an oasis, a sacred time spent with Jesus at the Table, experiencing him anew and absorbing him into our beings. No matter where you are on your walk with God, these meditations will Draw you closer to the heart of God Make Communion more meaningful Provide strength for the journey ahead. Written conversationally, Food for the Journey enriches its meditations with insights gleaned from the author's experiences in cultures around the world.

We all want joy for ourselves and for those we love - naturally. But often it eludes us. Joy in the Bible is far greater, more robust, than happiness. It persists through the hard times. We're even encouraged to rejoice in God 'always'. Joni Eareckson Tada knows more than most what this joy looks and feels like. Severely disabled and confined to a wheelchair since a diving accident in her teens, she knows the defiant 'yet' of Habakkuk - in spite of everything life throws at her, she can rejoice! With trusted teachers Michael Baughen, Alistair Begg, Don Carson, Peter Maiden, Paul Mallard, Alec Motyer, John Risbridger, Derek Tidball and others by your side, discover how the Bible (Nehemiah, Habakkuk, John, Romans, Galatians, Philippians, 1 Peter and 1 John), not just the Psalms, can help us find joy, whatever life throws at us. For people like us in the real world today.
