George Zoehl It ' s Just My Nature tells the romantic story of Martha, a sixty-six-year-old retired professor who is dying of cancer in Hospice care, and Joel, a jaded, questioning clergyman who is unceremoniously ushered in to provide pastoral care. Martha, he finds, possesses some unique knowledge in communicative diseases that the government desperately wants to get before she dies. Interspersed with the first person accounts by both Joel and Martha is the narrative of a certain village in South Sudan that has been brutalized by an ALFA raid. One of the young women, Farris, designs an unconventional plan to escape from her captives and save two younger children in a life-or-death race across the desert with her tormentors in close pursuit. It ' s Just My Nature is an intriguing web of connected stories that blends romance, adventure, theology, and geo-politics within an engaging and thought-provoking novel.

We are hard-wired for joy, happiness, good-health, wealth, and loving relationships -- God designed us for this outcome. If you are not experiencing this in your life and you want to, it is time. strengthen the one you have, this savvy guide will provide fresh insight into the mysteries of love. Barbara Barron-Tieger and Paul Tieger explain that it's not gender but personality type - your natural tendency to be outgoing or quiet, methodical or whimsical--that rules the way men and women relate. Drawing on twenty years of experience as well as groundbreaking new research, they explain everything you need to know about Personality Type, and offer an individualized approach to improving your love life. Once you've discovered which personality type describes you and your partner (or potential partner) best, you'll recognize your own behavior patterns, understand more about your partner's strengths and quirks, and learn

Imagine how rich life would be if you felt mentally clear, emotionally balanced, and spiritually inspired every day. How much good could you do if your body always felt strong? Where would you travel or who would you help if you had plenty of money? How grounded would you be if you had a conflict-free partner relationship that nourished you? Carol Tuttle, bestselling author of Remembering Wholeness, has found that a truly affluent life is rich in 6 areas: spiritual, mental, emotional, physical, financial, and in relationships. In her newest book, Mastering Affluence, she guides readers through 6 simple lessons (one for each area) to clear away longstanding patterns of struggle and replace them with ease and joy. Mastering Affluence doesn't just help its readers feel optimistic about having a better life. It guides them through a personal process to actively create one. Readers who follow Carol Tuttle's 6 Lessons and complete the activities throughout will come to the end of this book w one time or another asks herself or himself, "How did we get here? What makes me different from the rest of Nature?" In The Course of Nature an artist and a scientist ask those questions with full respect for all contexts, both scientific and not. Amy Pollack's figures stand on their own as elegant summaries of one or another aspect of Nature and our place in it. Robert Pollack's one-page essays for each illustration lay out the underlying scientific issues along with the overarching moral context for these issues. Together the authors have created a door into Nature for the non-scientist, and a door into the separate question of what is right, for both the scientist and the rest of us.

If you can FEEL IT you can HEAL IT!, explains what anger is all about; the solidification of the emotional body, the benefits of pain, and most importantly the N.O.W. (Nature's Own Way) method of healing. The author explains if you watch infants or any young children, when they are upset and can't deal with anymore emotional/stress, they will release and you clearly will see and know how the process of N.O.W. works. Feelings are energies and energies that remain in the body create toxins. When too many toxins build up in the body something is going to give; mental, emotional or physical. When any or all of these bodies are in disarray there is pain and where there is pain dis/ease occurs. There are many simple exercises that can help you through past and present emotional issues/situations.
