sassy single gal who needs work. Live-in nanny? What could go wrong? Remington Key: I left the Navy, scored a billion in tech, got married, and had a baby. I did everything by the book. Happily ever after, right? Fast-forward four years, and I'm alone, raising my daughter, caring for my mother-in-law, and trying to keep my stuff together. How did this happen? I was clearly drunk the night I offered a gorgeous girl in a bar $500 a day to be my live-in nanny. Or maybe it was my dick talking. So what if I've been alone since forever? I'm focused on launching my new business, not bedding the sexy siren who sleeps down the hall. At least that's what I keep reminding myself... Ruby Banks: Remington Key is distant, brooding, and ridiculously sexy. And when he scoops up his adorable four-year-old daughter Lillie and blows raspberries on her tummy while she squeals with delight, my ovaries literally explode. Bumping into him at our local pub that night slightly drunk and overly frustrated was a total accident. He needed help, and it was the Christian thing to help a man in need. Right? Only, Remington Key does not make me feel very Christ-like... No matter how committed I am to being a responsible employee. (A small-town STAND-ALONE CONTEMPORARY Romantic Comedy. No cheating; No cliffhangers.)

Lacey has fame and fortune. That's everything she's ever wanted. Right? When she becomes tabloid fodder, she's had enough. Escaping to a guest ranch in Bridgewater is the perfect place to hide. But when two hot cowboys make her theirs, is it for fifteen minutes of fame or because they want forever?

dirty romance with a movie star heroine who wants to hide herself from the world and two obsessed alpha cowboys who've found her. Claimed her. Made her theirs. This HEA is all about her - no m/m.

Alex was one of the most electric and domineering men I had ever met. I was hooked from the beginning. He was passionate, and captivating, and he wanted me. For two months. I couldn't turn away from our connection. I wanted more, needed more, and I was close to risking everything to stay in his arms. I didn't realize there were circumstances lurking around the corner ready to tear us apart.

I've got it all, they say. I'm the starting quarterback for the best NFL team in the league. I'm rich. I'm famous. I can have any woman I want, any time I want. Yeah, I've got everything—except for the one who got away. How do you move on from loving the same girl since you were in the seventh grade? She promised me forever until forever got too hard and at nineteen, she dumped me. By text message. Now she's walked back into my life. Just as beautiful. Just as sweet. Just as smart. More grown up and incredibly sexy... We're older now. Supposedly wiser. This time, I'm going to fight for what I want, no matter how hard it gets. This time, I'm going to make her mine.

The precious follow-up to MAMA WILL YOU HOLD MY HAND? and MAMA, HOW LONG WILL YOU LOVE ME? From bestselling author/illustrator Anna Pignataro comes the third title in her bestselling series, MAMA, WILL I BE YOURS FOREVER?, a sweet and loving portrayal of what "forever" means. The world is a very big place filled with everyday wonders that can both fascinate and confuse young readers. But Anna's text and sweeping illustrations are reassuring and engaging, showcasing the love of a parent for their child as well as introducing children to the many wonders of nature and life.

Sometimes you get a second chance at a first impression Mary Trace is bright, bubbly and back in the dating pool in her midthirties. All of her closest friends are in love, and she refuses to miss out on romance. So when a regular customer at her trendy Brooklyn boutique wants to set Mary up on a blind date with her son, she gives a hesitant yes. John Modesto-Whitford is gorgeous and well-groomed, so maybe dinner won't be a total bust—until he drops a less-than-flattering comment about Mary's age. Desperate to be nothing like his snake of a politician father, public defender John Modesto-Whitford prides himself on his honesty and candor. But his social awkwardness and lack of filter just blew it with the most beautiful woman he's ever dated. Luckily, Mom's machinations keep Mary and John running into each other all summer long, and soon they resort to fake dating to get her to back off. When their pretense turns to real friendship—and some surprisingly hot chemistry—can these two stubborn individuals see past their rocky start to a rock-solid future together?

The warm and witty, Sneha starts her first day of residency on the wrong foot with the temperamental and enigmatic, Dr.Shiva. When Sneha gets to know about his painful past, she finds herself falling in love with him in spite of knowing too well that Shiva will never reciprocate the same. When fate intervenes to make her reveal her true feelings for him, Shiva tells her to stay out of his life. But will Sneha be able to stay away from the only man that she has ever loved? Will Shiva be able to open his heart to love again? Will Sneha be able to overcome the traumatic accident? Can love heal all wounds, even when the scars run too deep?

Hustler. This best describes Layla's life. Ever since her father passed, she has stuck to his rules: Never get caught. Never get too close. Layla's game plan is simple, make all the extra cash she can, to make a living during college, hustling people at pool. If that means, flirting, and dressing sleazy, then so be it. It isn't until she catches Taylor Jack's eye that her shield is in terrible trouble of crumbling. The tattooed, bad boy, campus Fight Night champion, has his sights set on Layla, and isn't about to give up. After a weak moment, Layla leaves Taylor on top of his pool table half-naked and wanting her. Now it seems like she can't shake him, he is everywhere she turns. But, when Layla hustles the wrong guy, her safety is threatened. She might have to take down her shield so Taylor can rescue her from herself.
