Raw is one of those things that's disgusting and grotesque, but so intriguing that you can't look away. All the acting seems good, and the characters are interesting enough. The movie takes a bit of time to really pick up, and some scenes can seem pointless (like a lot of the hazing rituals) but from there I had my eyes glued to the screen.

Raw (2016) - IMDb

Raw (French: Grave) is a 2016 horror drama film written and directed by Julia Ducournau, and starring Garance Marillier. [6] [7] [8] [9] The plot follows a young vegetarian's first year at veterinary school when she tastes meat for the first time and develops a craving for flesh.

shows, capturing audiences with his intensity and charm. Reviews of the book lauded Butler's honesty and remarked on the double standard that permits explicit violence on film - but not explicit sex. The book sold out four printings; nonetheless, reactions within the adult film industry included heated debate and an unofficial blacklisting of Butler. The former star of X-rated films and winner of many awards, Jerry Butler wrote the book that many warned would "finish him" in the business that had rewarded him with money and fame. But it is characteristic of Butler that these warnings didn't prevent him from producing this devastatingly honest appraisal of the adult film trade - and of himself. For while Butler is frankly critical of an industry that treats actors and actresses like throw-away props, and allows unprotected sex
